Re: Continuation of Mortgage Activity Prior to Issuance of 2008 License

Be advised that per LSA-R.S. 6:1090(E)&(F) of the Residential Mortgage Lending Act, no licensed residential mortgage lender or originator shall enter into a residential mortgage lending transaction with a person who is not in compliance with its licensing provisions as a mortgage broker, mortgage lender, or originator.

However, this office has been delayed in the processing of 2008 renewal applications. Pursuant to LSA-R.S. 6:1088 F.(4) A license for which a renewal application was timely filed on or before the December thirty-first license expiration date shall remain in force and effect until such application is approved or rejected by the commissioner.

Companies and originators listed on our web site are currently active. Engaging in residential mortgage lending activity with any licensees listed on our web site at the time of the transaction will be considered in compliance with LSA-R.S. 6:1090(E)&(F). Please continue to monitor this web site prior to each transaction until such time as this Office either approves or rejects their renewal.
